GOP Women Start Drive For Members

An intense membership drive, aimed at reaching every registered Republican woman in the South Bay and new Southwest Torrance area, is now underway by the South Bay Club of Republican Women.

Mrs. Clayton Thomas, club president, estimated over 10,000 mailing pieces have been completed for the August 1 mailing.

"The purpose of our decision to conduct a membership drive on such a large scale before the November election is twofold," said Mrs. Thomas. "With the tremendous development of the South Bay and Torrance area we want to enlarge our membership so that our growth corresponds to that of the locality in which we live and serve."

AID TO LOCAL TB PATIENTS

A new club for ex-TB patients will meet Monday, August 2, at 7 p.m. at the YMCA, Arlington and Plaza del Amo, and all eligible are welcome. The purpose of the group is to help local patients confined in hospitals in this area.
